GAY THINGS

PEOPLE ARE LEARNING ABOUT GENDER. IF YOU'RE COMFORTABLE, YOU CAN SHARE YOUR OWN PRONOUNS!

I use: they / them / theirs
They're not my "preferred" pronouns; they are just my pronouns.

GENDER PRONOUNS
WE CAN'T TELL SOMEONE'S GENDER JUST BY LOOKING AT THEM, AND SHOULDN'T ASSUME WE KNOW, THERE ARE MANY GENDER IDENTITIES BEYOND "GIRL" OR "BOY": SOME PEOPLE DON'T IDENTIFY AS ANY GENDER!

EVERYONE IS A THEY UNTIL THEY SAY THEY ARE NOT.

Gender Pronouns
Subjective	Objective	Possessive	Reflexive	Examples
He	Him	His	Himself	He is walking. It belongs to him. The record is his. He bought himself a Coke.
She	Her	Hers	Herself	She is walking. It belongs to her. The record is hers. She bought herself a Coke.
They	Them	Theirs	Themselves	They are walking. It belongs to them. The record is theirs. They bought themselves a Coke.
Ze	Hir/Zir	Hirs/Zirs	Hirself/Zirself	Ze is walking. It belongs to hir. The record is zirs. Ze bought hirself a Coke.
Ve	Ver	Vis/Vers	Verself	Ve is walking. It belongs to ver. The record is vers. Ve bought verself a Coke.

What you can do if you misgender someone

If you do misgender someone, a good approach is: correct yourself, apologise (a simple "sorry" is fine), move on and try to avoid doing it again.

Pronouns may change but respect stays

Pronouns are partially about practice. After a little time, using they / them pronouns feels as easy as she / her or he / him.
